Interested in Becoming Catholic? Or... Know Someone Who Is?

Each year, many Americans across the country begin the RCIA program to explore the Catholic faith. RCIA stands for Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults, and centers around encountering Jesus in the Catholic Church. The program typically consists of weekly classes, beginning in the Fall, and prepares the participants to be received into the Catholic Church at Easter Vigil the following spring, if they so choose. This year, our seminarian Scott Foley will be heading up RCIA. Please note that RCIA is also open for Catholics who are interested in better knowing their faith. Please contact the church office (337-2856) if interested.

Walk the Talk

Everyday Stewardship

Take the 1% Prayer Challenge!

To kick off our annual Stewardship Renewal campaign the Evangelization & Stewardship Commission invites YOU to join the 1% Prayer Challenge during August.

God gives you 1,400 minutes each day. For one month will you commit to giving him 1%, or 15 minutes, in prayer? Whether you have an established prayer life and want to add more time in conversation with the Lord, or you need to jumpstart a new habit, you can join the 1% Challenge.

How will the challenge work?

- First, turn in a pledge card to share your Commitment (located at entrance of church)
- Second, keep track of your successes.
- Third, share your weekly minutes prayed—either on the St. Patrick Facebook page or the Narthex bulletin board.

Do you need help getting started?

The daily Bible readings are a great place to begin! You can find each day's readings here: <http://www.usccb.org/bible/readings/> Formed.org has audio books and lectures to inspire you.

Can't do 15 minutes at once?

Try 7.5 in the morning and 7.5 at night, or 5 minutes three times a day! Think you will forget? How about a daily alarm on your phone to remind you?

Whether you are a novice or veteran daily pray-er, you'll find resources to help you on your journey to a closer relationship with God.

UNLIMITED access 24/7 to Videos, Movies, Programs, Audio and Books!
